SHIP SINKS; 20 LIVES LOST.

The British ship Loch Finlas, from Port Pirie, south Australia, for Callao, was wrecked off Foster Island at daylight yesterday morning and 20 of the crew of 24 were drowned. The other four men were picked up by a passing steamer.

Foster Island lies a short distance off the northeast coast of Tasmania and it is surrounded by dangerous shoals. A gale, accompanied by a high sea, was blowing and the vessel soon struck the reef. The crew could be seen trying to lower the boats, when suddenly the ship sank.

To attempt a rescue from the shore was impossible on account of the heavy seas, but a steamer in the distance had sighted the wreck and made all speed to where the ship had gone down. Only four men were found. They were clinging to an upturned boat. They report that the second mate became insane during the height of the storm and jumped overboard. The Loch Finlas was of 2,062 tons burden and was commanded by Captain Dean.

We Lead—Others Follow

There are few, if any, of the people who do not want the best goods for the least money. Taking this statement for a fact and believing it to be true—a further truth presents itself, that of ability to pay high prices for the best articles. If the pocket will not stand the strain for liquors which range from $4 to $8 per gallon, a few lots can be mentioned from $2 to $2.60. We do not claim that this whisky equals the other, but we are confident of the fact that it is the best in the city for the money. Try a gallon and be convinced that we represent nothing we cannot execute.
